

As a long time consumer of ISP services from an independent and local company, I urge you to carefully consider these regulation changes. Small businesses in the USA are what makes us strong! As a small business owner, I greatly appreciate the customized services I can get from a small local ISP. Please don't let the large telephone and television companies own all of the internet!